

Find These Answers If You Can:

Name 2 sounds of nature that you hear.

What is colder — the dirt ground or ground covered in moss?

Why are some areas wetter than others?

Name 3 animal species you can see living in this area.

What animal tracks can you find?

Name 3 smells of nature you can identify here.

What part of a puddle is the deepest?

Is the wind coming from behind you, in front of you, or from the side?

If you had to find or build a shelter to sleep in here, what natural things around you could you use?

Other than footprints, name 2 ways you can tell if a human has been here.

Where is it the darkest in this area? And where is it the brightest?

